

READ THIS IT TELLS OF THE WORK OF THE MARK DOWN MAN

The "mark down man" is hard at work. Prices fall away to almost nothing under his magic pencil. During the rush of the past week many things were mussed; other things (we were so busy) were rarely shown or seen; others were sold down to two of this and three of that, and so on. Every day of the past week the "MARK DOWN MAN" has been skirmishing through the store for just such odd lots, corners have been ransacked, stocks turned topsy turvy and whatever his magic pencil touched has had its price REDUCED; Reduced; Reduced.

There is much to tell of things at half value, at a third, at a fourth of former selling prices, that we cannot print all—even while this is being written the "MARK DOWN MAN" is laboring industriously, making short work of WINTER GOODS, and getting bargains ready for the biggest selling this store has ever known. Cost is ignored, values of such magnitude are created that goods will vacate counters, tables and shelves at once.

WE THANK YOU

for the greatest January business thus far in the history of this store. We promise in return for the appreciation and good will shown that every mercantile force and power we control shall be centered toward bringing you the world's best at prices that will prove a boon to the economist, to every man and woman who wants to save money on worthwhile, wantable merchandise.

THE THEATERS

A novel plan has been adopted by the dictagraph people in conjunction with the wonderful photodrama "Traffic in Souls," which appears at the Robinson Grand soon. It will be remembered that the evidence by which the head of the vice trust is brought to justice is received by means of a dictagraph, and as the public at large are not thoroughly acquainted with the wonderful photodramaism the dictagraph company has made arrangements with the Universal Film Company, producers of "Traffic in Souls," to show and give a description of their instrument in the forty cities throughout the United States where this white slave movie is playing.

Julian Eltinge is shortly to appear in "Miss Swift of New York."

"Stop Thief," which comes to the Robinson Grand soon, will keep you laughing and at the same time make you feel that your own watch and solitaire have been "pinched." Cohan and Harris have provided a splendid cast which includes John Webster, John Findlay, Charles Brown, James H. Manning, Sussanne Willa, J. K. Hutchinson, Nan Francis, Fanchon Campbell, Dickie Delaro, Lella Frost, Mitchell Lewis, William Wagner, Lionel St. Clair, James T. Ford and other players of prominence.

Nanette Comstock is presenting a play called "The Tie That Binds."

The eminent producer Colin Campbell, who has done big things with Baldwin, daughter of "Lucky" Baldwin, the famous plunger. The identity of the composer was hidden until the music had made a hit on its merits.

Theodore Kramer's "Fatal Wedding" has been made into a photoplay and marks the first production of the kind by the company organized by Klaw and Erlanger.

Sydney Shields, who plays Betty Spottiswoods, the heroine in "Old Reliable," is a Mississippi girl and was born on just such a plantation as is presented in the play. Miss Shields has been on the stage several years.

"Bought and Paid For" is booked for appearance at the Robinson Grand February 8.

In addressing a meeting of a players' association, lately W. H. Crane declared it to be his conviction that unwholesome plays have a short career.
